Festive Afternoon Tea

A Timeless Tradition in the Heart of the Walled City

Step away from the bustle of festive shopping and retreat into the elegance of Bishop's Gate Hotel—just moments from the city's most popular stores. Our historic hotel offers the perfect place to pause, unwind, and savour the season.

What better way to spend an afternoon than by indulging in the 19th-century tradition of Afternoon Tea, surrounded by the charm and grandeur of a bygone era?

Enjoy a beautifully presented selection of delicate finger sandwiches, freshly baked scones, and seasonal sweet treats—each one handcrafted daily by our talented chefs.

Relax in sophisticated surroundings and enjoy the finest teas, or elevate the experience with a chilled glass of Prosecco for a little added sparkle. Treat yourself or someone special to a truly memorable festive escape.
